

Press Release

Press Conference on the Joint Letter of Civil Society Organizations urging the Intervention of Samdech Akka Moha Sena Padei Techo Hun Sen, Prime Minister of the Kingdom of Cambodia

On the draft law on access to information to the Prime Minister's Office

Phnom Penh, June 15, 2022 - 33 civil society organizations will hold a joint press conference on submitting a letter to the Prime Minister's Office to expedite the draft law on the right to information on the morning of June 16, 2022. 9:00 am at the Prime Minister's Office.

The main purpose of the letter is to request the intervention of the Prime Minister Samdech Techo Hun Sen to complete the process of drafting the law on "access to information" by Inputs from civil society organizations are submitted to the National Assembly for discussion and approval as soon as possible.

Civil society organizations have been actively involved in ensuring the implementation of the Royal Government of Cambodia's reform program, particularly in promoting the "right to Information" to contribute to the promotion of human rights and democracy for development in all areas.

For more information, please contact:

Mr. Lam Socheat, Executive Director of the Advocacy and Policy Institute (API)
Telephone number: 012 718 611/098 71 8 6 12
Email: socheat.lam@apiinstitute.org

Mr. Nop Vy, Executive Director of the Association of Cambodian Journalists (Cambodia)
Telephone: 012 519 261
Email: ed@camboja.net

Mr. Ith Sothoeut, Director, Media Department, Cambodian Center for Independent Media (CCIM)
Telephone: 012 819 545
Email: isothoeuth@vodhotnews.com

Ms. Srey Sotheavy, Director of the Conflict Resolution Working Group (ACT)
Telephone: 017 99 03 71
Email: director@act-kh.org